

NINTH DISTRICT.

Anderson county.—W. H. Tucker, of Tucker, Anderson county, was born in Conecuh county, Alabama, April 2, 1827; came to Texas in February, 1842, and located in Shelby county; moved to Leon in 1856, and to Anderson county in the spring of 1857; farmer and stockraiser by occupation; raised one of the first companies in Anderson county for Confederate service, in 1861, and joined the service as captain, serving during the war, in Louisiana and Arkansas, with Walker's Division; was a delegate to the National Democratic conventions of 1856, 1860, 1872, and 1876; elected to the House, November, 1882, as a Democrat, over John J. Ward, Independent.